Claims 5-9 are allowed over the prior art of record and in light of applicants' arguments. The amendment filed on 6/21/07 has been entered.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record to Hosoda, Morris and Sommerer fail to teach as a whole the steps of receiving, from a communication, terminal, a printing request, together with a unique session ID issued by an information processing apparatus that stores images, to print images stored by the information processing apparatus, determining whether or not the session ID received with the printing request is stored in a storage unit, in case it is determined that the session ID is stored in the storage unit, and it determined that the session ID is stored with personal information of the user, transmitting the personal information to the communication terminal in order to request confirmation of the personal information by the user, and in a case where it is determined that the session ID is not stored in the storage unit, obtaining the personal information of the user of the communication terminal, which has sent the printing request, in order to store the personal information with the session ID in the storage unit, and performing a process to print the stored image designated in the printing request after the user confirms the personal information transmitted by the transmitting step, or after storing the personal information in the storage unit obtained by the obtaining step..

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Frantz B. Jean whose telephone number is 571-272-3937. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-6:00 M-f.
